

We want to welcome you to Tapenade!
Our little slice of the South of France within Prahran.
You might recognise or have heard of most of those dishes, however our recipes are based on the ones kept in our families from generations, handed down from either our great-grandmothers, grandmothers, mothers or fathers. They all raised us with a passion for food so we decided to give you a little taste of our childhood memories into your plates.
